CHAMPIONS TO BE HONORED

The 2016 World Series champions will be celebrated in Cooperstown in Autumn Glory, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's exhibit that chronicles the postseason...The 2016 edition of Autumn Glory will be unveiled in November on the Museum's third floor and feature artifacts from the 2016 postseason...The exhibit will run through the 2017 Major League Baseball postseason...Artifacts from the 2015 postseason, like the catcher's mitt used by Most Valuable Player Salvador Perez and the jersey worn by the Royals' Eric Hosmer during his daring dash for home plate in Game 5, are currently on exhibit in Autumn Glory...The Museum collections contain many artifacts documenting the entire history of World Series and postseason play, including Don Larsen's cap and Yogi Berra's mitt from Larsen's 1956 perfect game; Joe Carter's bat from his 1993 Series-ending blast; and World Series rings from the last century of Fall Classic competition.

CLEVELAND ROCKS: The Indians are making their sixth appearance in the World Series and first since 1997...The Indians previously won the World Series in 1920 and 1948...The Museum contains several artifacts from the Indians' previous World Series champions, including home plate used at Cleveland Stadium during the 1948 World Series and tickets from the 1920 and 1948 World Series...The Museum also has artifacts from the 1995 and 1997 American League champion Indians, including spikes Kenny Lofton wore during the 1995 World Series and a bat used by Marquis Grissom in the 1997 World Series.

BEARING UP: The Cubs are making their 11th appearance in the modern World Series and first since 1945...The Cubs previously won the World Series in 1907 and 1908...The Museum contains artifacts from the Cubs' appearance in the 1945 World Series, including a press pin and the glove used by Cubs third baseman Stan Hack; and a gold fob pendant presented to Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown celebrating the Cubs' World Series wins in 1907 and 1908.

MEMBERS OF TEAMS WITH ARTIFACTS AT MUSEUM: Several members of the 2016 Cubs and Indians are represented in the Museum's collection beyond those listed above, including:

- Corey Kluber, who donated his Indians jersey from Sept. 6, 2014 when he notched his 14th win of the season en route to the American League Cy Young Award.
- Mike Napoli, who donated his Red Sox jersey following Game 6 of the 2013 American League Championship Series.
- Jason Kipnis, who donated a game-worn Indians jersey and a bat from the 2015 season.
- Lonnie Chisenhall, who donated a bat he used to record five hits and nine RBI in a game on June 9, 2014 vs. the Rangers.
- Jake Arrieta, who donated his cap worn during his 20th win of the season on Sept. 22, 2015 as well as his cap from his 2016 no-hitter.
- Kyle Schwarber, who donated his bat from the 2015 Futures Game where he was named MVP.
- John Lackey, who donated his cap from his start in Game 7 of the 2002 World Series with the Angels.
- Jon Lester, who donated his cap from Game 4 of the 2007 World Series and spikes from his no-hitter on May 19, 2008.
- David Ross, who donated his catcher's mask from the 2013 World Series when he was with the Red Sox.
- Aroldis Chapman, who donated Reds caps from 2014 when he established a new record of 40 consecutive games with a strikeout and from 2015 when he set a new record for saves by a native of Cuba.

THE FALL CLASSIC

21ST CENTURY FALL CLASSIC GEMS IN COOPERSTOWN: The Museum collections contain many artifacts documenting the history of World Series and postseason play...Among the most recent: From 2015, the catcher's mitt used by World Series MVP Salvador Perez and the jersey worn by the Royals' Eric Hosmer during his daring dash for home plate in Game 5; From 2014, the cap worn by World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner and the spikes worn by the Giants' Game 7 winner Jeremy Affeldt; From 2013, the bat used by World Series MVP David Ortiz of the Red Sox in Game 5 and the spikes worn by Boston's Koji Uehara throughout the World Series; From 2012, the bat used by the Giants' Pablo Sandoval to hit the first two of his three home runs in Game 1; From 2011, the game-worn Game 6 jersey from World Series MVP David Freese along with the bat the Cardinals' third baseman used to hit his game-winning home run in Game 6, and the spikes worn by the St. Louis' Albert Pujols when he hit three home runs in Game 3; And from 2010, the road jersey from the Giants' Tim Lincecum from Game 5, and the bat used by World Series MVP Edgar Renteria to hit his game-winning home run in Game 5.

20th and 19th CENTURY FALL CLASSIC ARTIFACTS HERE TOO: The Museum collections contain many artifacts documenting the entire history of World Series and postseason play...The first and last pitched baseballs from the original modern day World Series in 1903; Don Larsen's cap and Yogi Berra's mitt from Larsen's '56 gem; Joe Carter's (1993) bat from his Series-ending blast...The gloves worn by Al Gionfriddo (1947), Willie Mays (1954) and Brooks Robinson (1970)...Babe Ruth's bat from one of his two 3-HR games (1928) and the radio given to the 1940 Reds as the World Series share for winning...The Temple Cup, presented to the top two NL teams from 1894-97, is in Cooperstown, as is the Hall Championship Cup, presented to the 1888 World Champion New York Baseball Club.

ERNIE BANKS IS NOT ALONE: Of the 51 Hall of Fame major league players who did not appear in a World Series, 23 played prior to the first Fall Classic in 1903...The other 28 played at least five years after 1902...The unlucky 28 by position: C: Rick Ferrell...1B: Jake Beckley, George Sisler, Frank Thomas...2B: Rod Carew, Nap Lajoie, Ryne Sandberg...SS: Luke Appling, Ernie Banks, Bobby Wallace...3B: George Kell, Ron Santo...LF: Joe Kelley, Ralph Kiner, Billy Williams...CF: Ken Griffey Jr....RF: Andre Dawson, Elmer Flick, Harry Heilmann, Willie Keeler...Pitchers: Jim Bunning, Jack Chesbro, Ferguson Jenkins, Addie Joss, Ted Lyons, Phil Niekro, Gaylord Perry and Rube Waddell.

LEADERS OF THE PACK: Among the 118 Hall of Fame position players with World Series experience, the career leaders in batting and service categories...Yogi Berra: years (14), games (75), at-bats (259), hits (71), singles (49) and doubles (10, tied with Frankie Frisch); Joe DiMaggio: most Series playing in all games (10); Mickey Mantle: HR (18), RBI (40), extra base hits (26), walks (43), total bases (123) and runs (42); Tris Speaker: triples (4 – tied); Lou Brock: steals (14, tied with Eddie Collins).

FORD TOUGH: Among the 53 Hall of Famers to pitch in the World Series, “The Chairman of the Board,” Whitey Ford, leads in virtually every career category including innings (146), wins (10), strikeouts (94), years (11) and consecutive scoreless innings (33)...Christy Mathewson leads in CG (10), SHO (4) and consecutive scoreless innings in one series (27.0).

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE: Did you know that the all-time leader in World Series games played at four positions are Hall of Fame members?...Yogi Berra (C); Frankie Frisch (2B); Phil Rizzuto (SS) and Mickey Mantle (OF).

TODAY'S GAME ERA VOTE ON DECK

Five former big league players, three executives and two managers were named Oct. 3 to the Hall of Fame's Today's Game Era Ballot...The 10 finalists on the 2017 Today's Game Era Ballot include: Harold Baines, Albert Belle, Will Clark, Orel Hershiser, Davey Johnson, Mark McGwire, Lou Piniella, John Schuerholz, Bud Selig and George Steinbrenner. Baines, Belle, Clark, Hershiser and McGwire are included for their contributions as players, while Johnson and Piniella are included for their work as managers and Schuerholz, Selig and Steinbrenner are inclusions for their off-field careers...All candidates except for Steinbrenner are living...Any candidate to receive votes on 75 percent of the ballots cast by the 16-member Today's Game Era Committee will earn election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and will be inducted in Cooperstown on July 30, 2017, along with any electees who emerge from the 2017 Baseball Writers' Association of America election, to be announced on Jan. 18, 2017...Members of the Today's Game Era Committee will be announced later this fall.

WHO'S ELIGIBLE: The Today's Game Era covers candidates among managers, umpires, executives and long-retired players whose most significant career impact was realized from 1988 through the present day...Eligible candidates include: Players who played in at least 10 major league seasons, who are not on Major League Baseball's ineligible list, and have been retired for 15 or more seasons; Managers and Umpires with 10 or more years in baseball and retired for at least five years; and Executives who have been retired for at least five years, with any active executives 70 or older eligible for consideration.

THE BBWAA HISTORICAL OVERVIEW COMMITTEE: The Today's Game Era ballot was determined this fall by the Historical Overview Committee, comprised of 11 veteran historians: Bob Elliott (Toronto Sun); Jim Henneman (formerly Baltimore Sun); Rick Hummel (St. Louis Post-Dispatch); Steve Hirdt (Elias Sports Bureau); Bill Madden (formerly New York Daily News); Jack O'Connell (BBWAA); Jim Reeves (formerly Fort Worth Star-Telegram); Tracy Ringolsby (MLB.com); Glenn Schwarz (formerly San Francisco Chronicle); Dave van Dyck (Chicago Tribune); and Mark Whicker (Los Angeles News Group)...The HOC annually sets ballots for the Era Committee elections.

FUTURE ELECTIONS: Four eras for committee consideration have been identified following the Hall of Fame Board of Directors meeting in July: Today's Game (for candidates who made their most indelible contribution to baseball from 1988 to the present); Modern Baseball (for candidates who made their most indelible contribution to baseball from 1970 to 1987); Golden Days (for candidates who made their most indelible contribution to baseball from 1950 to 1969); and Early Baseball (for candidates who made their most indelible contribution to baseball prior to 1950)...The Today's Game and Modern Baseball eras will be considered twice each in a five-year period, with the Golden Days era considered once every five years and the Early Baseball era considered once every 10 years...Eras considered for yearly induction are as follows: 2017 – Today's Game; 2018 – Modern Baseball; 2019 – Today's Game; 2020 – Modern Baseball; 2021 – Both Golden Days and Early Baseball; 2022 – Today's Game; 2023 – Modern Baseball; 2024 – Today's Game; 2025 – Modern Baseball; 2026 – Golden Days. The Early Baseball era returns for induction consideration in 2031.

VETERANS VOTING HISTORY: The Veterans Committee/Eras Committee has been a part of the Hall of Fame voting process since the first class of electees in 1936, with the first Veterans Committee electees coming in 1937...In all its forms, the Veterans Committee/Eras Committee has elected 165 individuals (96 major leaguers, 28 executives, 22 managers, nine Negro Leaguers and 10 umpires) to the Hall of Fame.

THE COMMITTEE ON BASEBALL VETERANS: In 1953, the Baseball Hall of Fame Committee on Baseball Veterans was formed, outlining parameters that were similar through 2001, though with some variance throughout its time...Voting was conducted every other year from 1953-1959, with annual votes from 1961 until 2001...From 1961 through 2001, the Committee elected 101 members in 41 meetings, electing a candidate on all but three occasions: 1988, 1990 and 1993.

TURN OF THE CENTURY CHANGES: From 2001 through 2007, the Hall of Fame's Committee on Baseball Veterans considered long-retired players, managers, umpires and executives on a bi-annual cycle featuring one ballot for players and another for managers, umpires and executives...The electorate was comprised of the living members of the Hall of Fame, the living recipients of the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, the living recipients of the Ford C. Frick Award and Veterans Committee members whose terms had not yet expired...Beginning in 2003, the Committee held its election of players every other year...Also beginning in 2003, the election of managers, umpires and executives was held every four years...The three players elections (2003, 2005 and 2007) and the two composite-ballot elections (2003 and 2007) produced no candidates who received the 75 percent of the vote necessary for election.

REVAMPING THE PROCESS: From 2007 to 2010, the Hall of Fame's Committee on Baseball Veterans was revamped to consider managers and umpires on one ballot, executives and pioneers on one ballot, players who began their big league careers prior to 1943 on one ballot and players who were retired for at least 21 seasons and whose careers began after 1942 on a fourth ballot...The electorates consisted of panels of Hall of Famers, executives and media members...Players whose big league careers began after 1942 were considered every other year, with the managers/umpires and executive pioneers ballots considered in the opposite years from the players...Players whose big league careers began prior to 1942 were considered every five years starting in the fall of 2008...In the fall of 2007, the Committee considered the managers/umpires ballot and the executives/pioneers ballot...Managers Billy Southworth and Dick Williams each received 13 of a possible 16 votes (81.3%) to earn election from the managers/umpires ballot, while Barney Dreyfuss (10 of 12 votes, 83%), Bowie Kuhn (10 of 12 votes, 83%) and Walter O'Malley (9 of 12 votes, 75%) were elected from the executives/pioneers ballot...In the fall of 2008, Joe Gordon received 10 of 12 votes (83%) to earn election from the pre-1943 players ballot...No player reached the 75 percent threshold needed for election on the post-1942 players ballot, which was comprised solely of the 64 living Hall of Famers at that time...In the fall of 2009, the managers/umpires and the executives/pioneers ballots were again considered...Umpire Doug Harvey (15 of 16 votes, 93.8%) and manager Whitey Herzog (14 of 16 votes, 87.5%) were elected from the managers/umpires ballot...No candidate received the necessary 75 percent of the vote to earn election from the executives/pioneers ballot.

A NEW ERA: From 2011-15, the Veterans Committee transitioned to the Eras Committee, which featured three candidate categories based on the era in which the candidate left his or her most indelible mark...The Expansion Era Committee, the Golden Era Committee and the Pre-Integration Era Committee met on a three-year rotating basis, with two complete cycles of the committee votes held from 2011-15...The Expansion Era Committee elected executive Pat Gillick to the Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2011 in its first session, then elected managers Bobby Cox, Tony La Russa and Joe Torre to the Class of 2014...The Golden Era Committee elected Ron Santo as part of the Class of 2012, with no Golden Era candidates receiving the necessary 75 percent of the vote to be elected with the Class of 2015...The Pre-Integration Era Committee elected umpire Hank O'Day, executive Jacob Ruppert and third baseman Deacon White to the Class of 2013, with no Pre-Integration Era candidates reaching the 75-percent mark needed to be included with the Class of 2016.

VETERAN INFLUENCE: The Veterans Committee, in all its forms, has been electing players to the Hall of Fame since 1937, when Morgan Bulkeley, Ban Johnson, Connie Mack, John McGraw and George Wright comprised the first Veterans Committee class...The largest class came in 1946 when 11 men were elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee...The 11 electees in 1946 were: Jesse Burkett, Frank Chance, Jack Chesbro, Johnny Evers, Clark Griffith, Tommy McCarthy, Joe McGinnity, Eddie Plank, Joe Tinker, Rube Waddell and Ed Walsh...The 17 former Negro league players and executives chosen for enshrinement in 2006 were elected through a special committee on Negro Leagues and pre-Negro leagues candidates.

2017 BBWAA ELECTION

2017 BALLOT TO BE ANNOUNCED: The BBWAA will announce the candidates for 2017 Hall of Fame election later this fall...Any candidate who received 5% or more of ballots cast in 2016 will return...First-year eligible candidates must have last appeared in a major league game in the 2011 season and have received support through the BBWAA’s Screening Committee in order to appear on the ballot...Any candidates who receive 75% or more of votes on ballots cast will earn election to Cooperstown.

2017 RESULTS ANNOUNCED JAN. 18: The Hall of Fame and BBWAA will announce the results of the 2017 election on Wednesday, Jan. 18...The results will be delivered live on MLB Network by Hall of Fame President Jeff Idelson and will also be released on the respective websites of the two organizations, baseballhall.org and bbwaa.com.

BBWAA BALLOTING RECAP

THE 2016 BALLOT: The BBWAA ballot featured 32 players, including 15 new candidates and 17 returnees...Candidates appearing on the necessary 75 percent of all ballots cast to earn election appear in bold below...Candidates receiving less than five percent of the vote are no longer eligible for BBWAA consideration and appear in italics below...Fifteen players will return for consideration in 2017...A total of 440 votes were cast, with 330 votes necessary for election and 22 votes necessary to remain on the ballot...Ken Griffey Jr. became the 51st player elected to the Hall on his first BBWAA ballot and set a new record by receiving 99.32 percent of the overall vote...Alan Trammell received 40.9 percent of the vote, and Mark McGwire received 12.3 percent in their final years of eligibility on the BBWAA ballot...The final results, in order of percentage received with number of years on the ballot:

TRY AND TRY AGAIN: The 68 men not elected by the BBWAA in their first year eligible were done so on a later ballot, taking from two to 16 elections...The length of time a player could stay on the BBWAA ballot has varied throughout history...From 1946-56, the rule was that a player must have been active at some point in the 25 years prior to the election – it was increased to 30 years from 1956-62, was 20 years from 1963-2014 and is now 15 years...When one walks through the Hall of Fame Gallery, though, the year or method by which players were elected are not noted...The 68 non-first year BBWAA electees: 2nd election (Alomar, Berra, Fingers, Fisk, Ford, Lajoie, Speaker, Young); 3rd election (Alexander, Biggio, Grove, Hubbell, Hunter, Jenkins, Larkin, Marichal, Ott, Perry, Sandberg); 4th election (E.Collins, DiMaggio, Keeler, Killebrew, Piazza, Roberts, Sisler, Wynn); 5th election (Campanella, Hornsby, Mathews, Niekro, Sutton); 6th election (Aparicio, Carter, Cochrane, Frisch, Gehringer, P.Waner, B.Williams); 7th election (Appling, Foxx); 8th election (Pennock, Traynor, Wilhelm); 9th election (Dawson, Gossage, Greenberg, Medwick, Pérez); 10th election (Boudreau, Cronin, Dickey, Drysdale, Lyons, Simmons); 11th election (Snider); 12th election (Dean, Hartnett, Heilmann, Lemon); 13th election (Kiner, Sutter); 14th election (Blyleven, Maranville, Terry); 15th election (Rice, Ruffing); 16th election (Vance).

ONE-TEAM WONDERS: There are 49 Hall of Famers who spent their entire career with one team...2015 inductee Craig Biggio is the most recent addition to that list...The others: Luke Appling, Ernie Banks, Johnny Bench, George Brett, Roy Campanella, Roberto Clemente, Earle Combs, Bill Dickey, Joe DiMaggio, Bobby Doerr, Don Drysdale, Red Faber, Bob Feller, Whitey Ford, Lou Gehrig, Charlie Gehringer, Bob Gibson, Tony Gwynn, Carl Hubbell, Travis Jackson, Walter Johnson, Addie Joss, Al Kaline, Sandy Koufax, Barry Larkin, Bob Lemon, Ted Lyons, Mickey Mantle, Bill Mazeroski, Bid McPhee, Stan Musial, Mel Ott, Jim Palmer, Kirby Puckett, Pee Wee Reese, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken, Phil Rizzuto, Brooks Robinson, Jackie Robinson, Mike Schmidt, Willie Stargell, Pie Traynor, Bill Terry, Ted Williams, Carl Yastrzemski, Ross Youngs and Robin Yount.

NINE TENTHS OF THE LAW: No individual has been elected to the Hall of Fame by the BBWAA as a unanimous choice, though there have been many close calls...Ken Griffey Jr. became the 31st player to earn at least 90 percent of the BBWAA vote in any one election...Griffey, who received 99.32% of the vote in 2016, set a record for highest vote percentage received in a BBWAA election...The 31 players with at least 90% of votes cast in their favor:

COME ONE, COME ALL: An estimated crowd of 50,000 fans attended the July 24 Induction Ceremony, the second-highest total in the history of the event...In 2007, an estimated 82,000 fans packed Cooperstown, honoring the Hall of Fame induction of Cal Ripken Jr. and Tony Gwynn and setting a Hall of Fame Weekend attendance record...Following 2007, the top eight estimated crowds for Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies: 50,000 (1999 and 2016); 48,000 (2014); 45,000 (2015); 40,000 (1995); 27,000 (2001 and 2005); and 25,000 (2000)... In the last three Induction Ceremonies, the average estimated attendance has been 47,667.

THE KID COMES TO COOPERSTOWN: The first No. 1 overall pick in the MLB Draft to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Ken Griffey Jr. lived up to expectations by becoming one of the best all-around players in the game's history...Born on Hall of Famer Stan Musial's birthday in Musial's hometown of Donora, Pa., Griffey followed his father, Ken Griffey Sr., to the big leagues...He quickly revived the Mariners franchise with power at the plate, grace in center field and charisma that sparkled throughout the baseball world...By the end of his 22-year big league career, Griffey had totaled 630 home runs, 13 All-Star Game selections, 10 Gold Glove Awards and the 1997 American League MVP Award.

CATCHING UP: Making his way from a 62nd round draft pick to Cooperstown, Mike Piazza traveled a road none had taken...By the time he retired, Piazza could lay claim to being one of the greatest hitting catchers in history...Piazza burst on the scene in 1993, winning National League Rookie of the Year honors after hitting .318 with 35 home runs and 112 RBI...After five stellar seasons with the Dodgers that included two runner-up finishes in the NL Most Valuable Player Award voting, Piazza was traded to the Marlins and then to the Mets, where he led New York to the 2000 National League pennant...In 16 big league seasons, Piazza hit 427 home runs – including a record 396 as a catcher...He was named to 12 All-Star Games and won 10 Silver Slugger Awards.

BOOK NOW FOR FUTURE WEEKENDS: Hall of Fame Weekend is typically scheduled for the last weekend in July, though there are exceptions...The 2017 Induction Weekend is scheduled for July 28-31, with the Induction on July 30...Induction Weekend 2018 is scheduled for July 27-30, with the Induction on July 29...Induction Day in 2019 will be July 20, and Induction Day in 2020 will be July 26...A partial list of eligible first-time players for upcoming Hall of Fame elections includes: 2017: Vladimir Guerrero, Jorge Posada, Manny Ramírez, Ivan Rodríguez; 2018: Chipper Jones, Hideki Matsui, Jim Thome, Omar Vizquel; 2019: Roy Halladay, Todd Helton, Andy Pettitte, Mariano Rivera; 2020: Bobby Abreu, Derek Jeter, Paul Konerko, Alfonso Soriano; 2021: Mark Buehrle, A.J. Burnett, Tim Hudson, Torii Hunter, Aramis Ramírez; 2022: Prince Fielder, David Ortiz, Mark Teixeira.

2016 AWARD WINNERS

Graham McNamee, winner of the 2016 Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasters, and Dan Shaughnessy, the 2016 winner of the Baseball Writers' Association of America's J.G. Taylor Spink Award, were honored at the 2016 Hall of Fame Awards Presentation on Saturday, July 23 at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown.

BOSTON STRONG: Boston Globe sports columnist Dan Shaughnessy, who has been a major voice on baseball in New England and nationally for 35 years, was elected the 2016 winner of the J.G. Taylor Spink Award in balloting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America...Shaughnessy, born July 20, 1953 in Groton, Mass., began his career with the Baltimore Evening Sun in 1977 and then took a role as a national baseball writer for the Washington Star before settling in with the Globe in 1986...The Holy Cross graduate has covered more than 35 spring trainings and 25 World Series...He has also written 12 books, including nine on baseball, most notably "Curse of the Bambino"...Shaughnessy also popularized the phrase, "Red Sox Nation" which took on special meaning during the team's storybook run to the 2004 World Series championship, marking the franchise's first title in 86 years...Through his columns, Shaughnessy has taken on owners, front offices, managers, coaches and players alike in pertinent issues through good times and bad with the Red Sox...He was the last writer to interview Hall of Famer Ted Williams before the legend's passing in 2002...Shaughnessy becomes the fifth Boston-based writer to be honored, joining Harold Kaese and Tim Murnane, plus his former Globe colleagues Peter Gammons and Larry Whiteside...Shaughnessy is the 67th winner of the Spink Award.

RADIO'S FIRST SUPERSTAR: Graham McNamee, whose national play-by-play of the World Series in the earliest days of radio transformed the one-time opera singer into a household name, was selected as the 2016 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually for excellence in broadcasting by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum...Born July 10, 1888 in Washington, D.C. and raised in St. Paul, Minn., McNamee aspired to be an opera singer...But during a lunch break from jury duty in 1923, McNamee strolled into radio station WEAJ in New York City and auditioned for a job as an announcer...The station was impressed with his diction and voice and hired him...When the 1923 World Series arrived featuring the Yankees and the Giants, McNamee was paired with legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice on the air – and quickly demonstrated a knack for entertaining reportage of the games...McNamee's work at the World Series vaulted him to the head of the class of announcers in the fledgling world of national radio broadcasts...He helped establish NBC's role at major events, calling auto races, boxing matches, political conventions and the return of Charles Lindbergh from his transatlantic flight in 1927...Just like Lindbergh, McNamee was featured on the cover of Time magazine for his exploits in 1927...But it was through baseball games where McNamee reached his greatest audience...He called the World Series each year from 1923 through 1934 and also worked the first four MLB All-Star Games from 1933 through 1936...McNamee passed away in 1942 at the age of 53...He is the 40th winner of the Frick Award.

MUSEUM LAUNCHES ONLINE DIGITAL ARCHIVE

The Hall of Fame Digital Archive Project launched on Sept. 7 with 25 volumes of 10 different Babe Ruth Scrapbooks in the collection available online for the first time...These one-of-a-kind scrapbooks, created by Ruth's agent Christy Walsh, provide a unique look at Ruth's career through letters, stories and photographs, and give a glimpse at the authentic Babe Ruth...Additional digitized material – including photos, audio, video and text – from the Museum collection will be published regularly as the Museum adds to the PASTIME (Public Archive System To Interact with the Museum Electronically) online collection, which is available at <http://collection.baseballhall.org...>The next drop will occur on Nov. 2 with material available pertaining to historic baseball world tours...Many of these materials will be available to the public for the first time, allowing fans to browse the Museum collection as they plan their visit to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, or continue their exploration of baseball history after they tour the Museum...With more than three million Library items, a quarter of a million unique images and 40,000 three-dimensional artifacts representing baseball's illustrious history, the Museum preserves an immense physical collection that brings baseball history to life...Through the Hall of Fame Digital Archive Project, the Museum, over the next several years, will continue to digitize its collections and Library archive, making PASTIME the online resource for baseball history...The goal of the Project is to provide online access to the precious artifacts and documents that are preserved in Cooperstown for fans and researchers around the globe, while ensuring that they are digitally archived for future generations of fans...PASTIME will become the online portal for fans and students of the game to relive baseball's greatest moments through the Museum's collection...The PASTIME digital asset management system has been developed based on open source standards that will be made available so that other cultural institutions can benefit from this leap forward in digital artifact preservation...Museums and educational institutions around the world will have access to this system built by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum.
